Bob

Great day.

We clawed back 3B more of value in the transaction and cut the building prices by 160 mm tonight.

But all of that pales in comparison to Barclay's share price today.

All the best

The court has approved Barclay's acquisition of Lehman Brothers

Congratulations. A great leap forward for Barcap.

The new leader in global corporate and investment banking.

Created in record time and at an unbelievable cost.

An extraordinary team effort.

It has been an honor to work with you to get to this point.

More work still ahead around the globe.

But now the fun really begins.

These are the assets transferred.

Robert, can you get by asset category.

I don't believe we moved over anything else - shorts or matched book, but legal will need to confirm.

I think the reverses within the assets transferred will need to be cleared up on Monday, as will not be clean trades, so will probably need to treat as a broken repo, and then clean up with the clients on the other side. Will need to work with Tom Luglio on this, but relatively small amount of trades will be required.

Barclays (James Walker) called this am. They want an "opening balance sheet" today. 3 pieces to this. (1) Robert - do you have the final list of assets under the repo which they took possession of - need by gaap asset class versus the financing. Could you please assemble in a file which can be sent direct back to barclays (2) did we end up transferring the shorts and related reverse repo? If so, Robert/Alistair who has that list, were tickets booked for this etc.same as above need a list to be emailed back (3) Brett - could you please update the summary BS once we have this information later in the day.

I think we need to deliver back to narclays the simple BS together with inventory list and possibly shorts/reverses depending on what was done with this. Robert - could you please compile and coordinate with brett around BS.

Please give me ETA so I can update James at Barclays.

Thx - M
